Q: I have a question. In chapters 436 to 437 (volume 45), there is a wealthy-looking girl holding a pair of binoculars. What is she looking at? Franky may be a pervert, but I think she is too. I want to know her name and what she's like, so please tell me! And keep up the good work!

—Gengorous Zone

A: So you found her. I see. Then let me announce it! Her name is Marmieta (I can see everything). And the person next to her is the butler, Yamemahare (Please stop it). She is the only daughter of the mayor, Bimine (How tasty), of Pucci, the Gourmet City, which is connected to Water Seven via the Sea Train. Though she is very naive, she's curious about everything. After she heard of the damages Aqua Laguna caused, she went to Water Seven to deliver relief goods. But there she saw a very strange sight!

Q: I've been wondering this for a very long time, but did you model Robin off of... me?

—Nico Aya

A: Yeah, whatever.

Q: Hey, Oda Sensei! I've been wondering about this... In volume 45, Robin grabbed Franky. Can Robin feel what she's grabbing? Please tell me!

A: Yes, she can. All the appendages she sprouts are a part of her body. So she can feel everything those sprouted appendages touch, and if they get hurt, she gets hurt, too. In that circumstance, it was like she grabbed Franky with her bare hands! Girls, please don't do stuff like this.
